Woman found deceased near wooded area in Columbia

No signs of foul play

Howard County police are investigating the death of a woman found by a resident near a wooded area in Columbia Feb. 3. Preliminarily, there are no indications of foul play.

Officers responded to the 6100 block of Dobbin Road at approximately 4:46 p.m. and believe the woman had been exposed to the elements for an undetermined period of time. She was not dressed appropriately for the weather. Her identity and cause of death will be confirmed through autopsy. The investigation is ongoing.
